

BOON

MAP

STREET ART

KIRIKIRIROA HAMILTON

Becca PA UN NaiHarcourts
 Your Partners in the CBD

Hamilton City Council
 Trust Waikato
 MEL ENERGY
 Resene
 Love the Centre
 the paint the professionals use

Map Design: Ray Powell ray@xray.net.nz

hamiltonartstrust@gmail.com
 boomarts.co.nz
 @boomarts boomartshamilton
 boomarts.co.nz

To book a street art tour sasha@boomarts.co.nz
 To commission a mural sasha@boomarts.co.nz

BOON

Art everywhere, every day.

- 17 Immortal Child
 Kalani Lanusi is a budding artist in Kirikiriroa's art scene, interested in telling stories of her South American whakapapa. @min_vista
- 18 Melinda Butt
 Melinda Butt is an artist on a mission, sharing BOON's belief in the power of art to transform and enhance communities' experience of everyday spaces. @sean_duffell
- 19 Sean Duffell
 Sean Duffell is known for his large abstract murals inspired by NZ flora, fauna, insects and reptiles. @danielormsbyart
- 20 Daniel Ormsby
 Daniel Ormsby (Ngāti Maniapoto) is a toi painter, whakairo (traditional Maori carver), ta moko (traditional Maori tattooist) and educator based in Waitomo. @christie.wright
- 21 Christie Wright
 Christie Wright is a self-taught, multi-disciplinary visual artist from Napier. @jacob_chrisoouu_artist
- 22 Siren
 Siren (Jacob Chrisoouu) is a multi-disciplinary freelance artist, who through art and hip-hop, encourages young people to positively develop themselves towards a positive and productive future. @micastill
- 23 Mica Still
 Mica Still is a Wellington based painter known for her vivid, playful and thought provoking artwork. @tnt
- 24 TnT
 A collaboration from husband and wife team Tim Croucher and Tracy Croucher. @caittinmoloneyartist
- 25 Magic Darts [refer to 10]
- 26 Caitlin Moloney
 Caitlin Moloney is an Australian born Pākehā artist exploring questions of identity & belonging - of Celtic, Iberian, North & West European decent. @askewone
- 27 Askew One
 Askew One/Elliott O'Donnell is a self-taught multi-disciplinary artist hailing from Auckland, who has been an integral part of the street art scene for over 20 years in Aotearoa. @tw.ei
- 28 T Wei
 T Wei is a Wellington based artist whose particular style is pop-surrealism. @charlesjanewilliams
- 29 Charles and Janine Williams
 Charles (Ngāti Kahungunu, Ngāi Tūhoe, Ngāti Tūwharetoa, Ngāpuhi) is a founding member of The Most Dedicated, a collective of creatives from around the world. Janine (Ngāti Whātua ki Kaipara, Ngāti Pāoa) is one of Aotearoa's first female street artists whose passion lies in works that reflect local stories. @manuxgraphics.com
- 30 TECHS X
 Pohiakena Ngāwati (Ngāti Hine, Tainui, Ngāpuhi) is a Hamiltonian muralist and Wintec graduate with a number of impressive works around Hamilton and the world. @bemodern1
- 31 Be Modern
 Paul Darragh's painting practice traverses both the traditional canvases and large-scale murals and outdoor paintings. @dinho_bento
- 32 Dinho Bento
 Dinho Bento is a Brazilian artist who, in his work, expresses his emotions and

- experiences in relation to nature, in addition to showing his concern with the actions of damage caused by humans to the environment. @tehaunuiart
- 33 Te Haunui Tuna
 Te Haunui Tuna's main passion is his Māori heritage; whether it's depicting Atua Maori (Maori Gods), myths and legends, creating personifications inspired from stories or etching whakapapa (genealogy) and life journeys onto people. @jeremyartanddesign
- 34 TECHS X [refer to 30]
- 35 Jeremy Shirley
 Jeremy Shirley is one of Hamilton's best-known muralists and has work spread widely around the city, the country and abroad. @the_real_steveyt
- 36 Magic Darts [refer to 10] with Simon Blanchett
- 37 Stephen Templer
 Stephen Templer is an artist, maker and story teller. @agan_tatu
- 38 The Underwater Collective
 The Underwater Collective is a collaborative group of artists from the Waikato whose work collides everyday icons with wild dream-scape imaginings. Their process is one of collaborative improvisation. @koryu88
- 39 Koryu
 KORYU is a Japanese mural artist who works all over the world painting vibrant motifs to capture the characteristics of each region. @mroscarlow
- 40 Pauly B [refer to 8]
- 41 Trustme
 Trustme (Ross Liew) is an Auckland based aerosol artist. @erikapearce
- 42 Erika Pearce
 Erika Pearce is a vibrant multi-disciplined artist and a passionate conservationist. @tenhundred
- 43 Ten Hundred
 'Ten Hundred' aka Peter Robinson is painter/designer/muralist from Southwest Michigan, USA. @koryu88
- 44 Ripe Mind [refer to 14]
- 45 Point Chev [refer to 4]
- 46 TECHS X [refer to 30]
- 47 Gina Kiel
 Gina creates strong feminine images that exude sensuality and explore the human experience through ideas of life, death, spirituality, pop culture and magic. @ginakiel
- 48 Caitlin Moloney [refer to 26]
- 49 Ushy Ushy [refer to 1]
- 50 Ross Liew [refer to 41] with Margarita Vovna
 Margarita is a multi disciplinary self taught artist in a continuous cycle of give and take. Her work is often autobiographical and a reflection of explored landscapes and cultures making a strong connection between her life and art. @margaritavovna
- 51 Regan Balzer
 Regan Balzer is a Māori (Te Arawa, Ngāti Ranginui, Raukawa, Maniapoto), Scottish and Irish artist, whose work combines cultural iconography with various layers and styles. @reganbalzerarts

- 52 Te-Marunui-Hotene (Boon on Campus)
 Te Marunui Hotene's (Tūhoe and Ngāti Pūkeko) extensive art practice considers creative practice as both a reflection of and method to facilitate healing in Urban Māori identity. @temarunuihotene
- 53 Kelcy Taratoa
 Kelcy's (Ngāti Tapu / Te Whānau-a-Tauwhao / Ngāti Kapumanawawhiti) work often explores ideas of cultural identity, popular culture, technology and science fiction. @kelcytaratoa
- 54 Xavier Tapp [refer to 9]
- 54 TECHS X [refer to 30]
- 56 Pauly B [refer to 8]
- 57 T Wei [refer to 28]
- 58 Dream Girls Collective
 The collaborative creative mahi of Gina Kiel, Xoe Hall, and Miriama Grace-Smith. @dreamgirlsartcollective
- 59 Gina Kiel [refer to 47]
- 60 Rachel Peary
 Rachel Peary is a Hamilton based artist whose work is inspired by play and curiosity. @rachelhopepeary
- 61 The Underwater Collective [refer to 35]
- 62 Flox
 Flox is an aerosol and stencil artist with a fine art degree, and has been making her mark on the inner cityscape of Auckland since 2003. @floxnz
- 63 Jodie McBride
 Jodi McBride is a Rotorua based artist who re-imagines everyday situations in quirky and playful ways. @jodis_space
- 64 Ushy Ushy [refer to 1]
- 65 Stephen Templer [refer to 37]
- 66 Zarna Torpey
 Zarna is a Hamilton based artist whose practice explores themes of extinction, death, rebirth and healing from trauma. @zarna.torpey
- 67 Pounamu Wharekawa [refer to 6]
- 68 Leilani Shaw
 Leilani Shaw is Kanien'kehá:ka from Kahnawá:ke, Quebec, Canada and a member of the Turtle Clan. Her artwork is a contemporary take on traditional Indigenous storytelling. @leilanishaw
- 69 Te-Marunui-Hotene [refer to 52]
- 70 Brya Rose [refer to 3]
- 71 Guy Moskon
 Guy has a rusty tin can and string phone line tied together with a little San Francisco underground comics style mixed with a good old cereal bowl of 90's gross out Saturday morning cartoons. @moskonreview

- 1 Ushy Ushy
 Based in Hamilton, Aotearoa, Ushy Ushy is inspired by 1980s animation and pop culture and has exhibited work in the Waikato, Bay of Plenty, Coromandel, Auckland and Melbourne. @ushy_ushy
- 2 Three Little Lines
 Liam Bourton, who started doing art in high school after accidentally being placed in an art class, characteristically uses geometric shapes and lines to explore the concept of simplicity and complexity. @brya_rose
- 3 Brya Rose
 Brya Rose is a mama, artist and teacher from the Māhāhāhā clan of Kirikiriroa. @point_chev
- 4 Point Chev
 Kieran Horner, 'Point Chev', is a Kirikiriroa tattooist inspired by folk art, tattooing and the classic kiwi spirit of DIY. @agan_tatu
- 5 Ali Selliman
 Ali Selliman is a local artist and tattooist from Holiday Tattoo Studio and member of the Underwater Collective, influenced by folk tales, architecture and indigenous cultures. @pounamu.pounamu
- 6 Pounamu Wharekawa
 Pounamu Wharekawa (Ngāi te Rangī, they/them/ra) is an angry indigenous bad bitch, fine artist, illustrator and muralist. @rachelkiddie.mclure
- 7 Rachel Kiddie Mclure
 Rachel's work embraces themes of home-life, motherhood, feminism, craft, nostalgia and storytelling. @pauyb.art
- 8 Pauly B
 Pauly B paints murals because the human spirit matters, how we feel matters, and our environments matter; his artworks are love letters to our city and the people within it. @xavier.tapp
- 9 Xavier Tapp
 Xavier Tapp is a geometric artist based in Kirikiriroa. @magic.darts
- 10 Magic Darts
 Craig Mclure is a Hamilton based doodler, painter, illustrator, muralist, curator, festival director and project manager. @kellsunshine
- 11 Kell Sunshine with Michael Moore
 Kell Sunshine is a muralist, illustrator and lettering artist based in sunny Ōhāwhiri. Michael Moore is a poet who provided the words for this mural. @ripe_mind
- 12 Pauly B [refer to 8]
- 13 Rachel Kiddie Mclure [refer to 7]
- 14 Ripe Mind
 Tony Diaz is an artist, illustrator and muralist based in Humboldt, California. @elliottmason
- 15 Elliot Mason
 Elliot's unique style responds to experiences in the wilderness, histories and human culture. @enox
- 16 Enox
 Enox, AKA Iain Spanhake, is a professional illustrator whose work is inspired by graffiti art, 80's pop culture and Japanese kawaii characters.

KIRIKIRIROA HAMILTON

WAIKATO TE AWA

- Hamilton CBD North
- Central
- South
- Hamilton East
- University of Waikato
- Frankton
- Dinsdale
- Other public art

100 metres

